

BACHELOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (BBA)

PROSPECTUS

ACADEMIC QUALIFICATIONS OVERVIEW

PURPOSE OF THE BBA DEGREE

The purpose of the Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) in Project and Supply Chain Management is to master the essentials of organisational value chain management in the prevailing fourth industrial revolution (Industry 4.0 or 4IR). These essentials include general management, business management, project management, programme management, and supply chain management. The BBA's distance learning structure allows for maximum flexibility in terms of when and where to study and is designed to meet the needs of working students. The BBA degree is accredited at NQF Level 7 (360 credits).

Momentous changes are occurring in the 4IR environment, and business administration is now more than ever a vibrant and extremely valuable field of study. In the Cranefield BBA programme, students are extensively trained in the 4IR general management functions of leading, creating, implementing and improving. Business management aspects covered include functional management aspects such as finance, operations, marketing, logistics, and human resources that support programme-managed supply chain and project portfolios leading to optimal organisational improvement and performance.

BBA graduates are equipped to be leaders in the 4IR economy but will also have gained a solid foundation for postgraduate studies, through which they could continue to achieve greater heights in terms of developing their expertise. Qualifying students who further their studies through Cranefield may next enrol for the Postgraduate Diploma in Programme Management (completed part-time in nine months) and thereafter for the Master of Commerce in Programme Management (completed part-time in two years, depending on module choices and personal progress). Exceptional students may later in their careers progress all the way to the Cranefield PhD in Commerce and Administration, which signifies the highest level of attainment.

YOU WILL LEARN TO

- Understand the respective responsibilities of leaders and managers operating in the functional and cross-functional processes of Fourth Industrial Revolution (4IR or Industry 4.0) organisations.
- Distinguish between functional and cross-functional processes of the 4IR organisational value chain.
- Apply project management planning and implementation knowledge to deliver innovative projects that are on budget, on time, and of the required quality.
- Understand the fundamentals of commercial and contract law in order to add value to corporate, business and operations strategy and risk management.
- Reflect on and optimally apply the 4IR management functions of leading, creating, implementing, and improving to achieve organisational performance.
- Grasp the important role played by functional departments in providing supportive resources to cross-functional supply chain and project portfolios of the 4IR organisational value chain.
- Understand how virtual networks of partners are utilised collaboratively to perform non-core activities in business processes of 4IR organisations.
- Distinguish between marketing and logistics and grasp the important relationship that exists between these functional organisational departments.
- Learn to master entrepreneurship and how to plan, implement, monitor and control the entrepreneurial project to ensure success.
- Apply supplier relationship management with the aim of effectively procuring goods and services required to deliver high-performance supply chain results.

ALL CRANEFIELD QUALIFICATIONS ARE ACCREDITED BY THE COUNCIL OF HIGHER EDUCATION.

OUR APPROACH TO TEACHING AND LEARNING

To furnish you with a solid theoretical and practical background, the academic programmes provide an introduction to basic and major areas of project and programme management. Included in our teaching are traditional and innovative learning approaches.

EMPHASIS IS ON LEARNING INSTEAD OF TEACHING:

- Students should prepare themselves thoroughly by studying the prescribed text and recommended reading material.
- Facilitates internalisation of information.
- Promotes meaningful participation in syndicates.
- Classes take the form of presentation and discussion, rather than conventional lectures.
- Both theoretical understanding and practical skills in application are promoted.
- Emphasis is on hands-on problem solving.

- Understand the profound importance of programme management in the effective and efficient leading and governing of cross-functional supply chain and project portfolios.
- Apply programme management and continuous improvement to cope with risk and complexity, and to enhance organisational value chain performance of 4IR organisations for maximum productivity.

APPLY WHAT YOU LEARN TODAY IN YOUR JOB TOMORROW

In the Industry 4.0 economy climate, employers prefer job-relevant education and training for improving the abilities of employees and for providing them with the necessary skills to apply what they learn today in their work context tomorrow. All academic programmes and modules are presented in English.

Note that live inter-active online classes are streamed globally via the Internet. Student syndicate groups meet outside of work hours to discuss their practical case studies. Cranefield's state of the art teaching and learning technologies allow classes, and even syndicate group meetings, to be attended live online via the Internet anywhere in the world. Recordings of classes are available for revision purposes, or where a student is unable to attend a live online session, or resides in a country that falls outside the timeline

To cater to the needs of working students, there are intakes in each quarter of the year so as to allow for flexibility in terms of being able to commence studies in January, April, July or October in any given year. Learning modules are offered in series, with one module at a time being completed per quarter.
